A STRANGE INFATUATION.

MR. EDITOR:—The world is too frequently deceived by outward appearances. Whatever puts on a dazzling exterior, we are by some strange infatuation, inclined to regard as greatly superior to the plain and simple. A church that is highly finished and most superbly ornamented will attract its thousands of worshippers, though its pulpit be void of talent, and the doctrinos therefrom promulgated be the doctrine of devils; while the unpretending edifice, in which the grand and sublime truths of inspiration are uttered by the lips of burning eloquence, has but few attendants. The spacious college standing upon yonder hill, lifting its spires into the very clouds of heaven as emblematical of the aspiring intellects that lodge and rule within, gathering into its ample folds the youths of distant climes may, nevertheless, be controled by idiotic and imbecile instructors as inadequate to the great duty of imparting instruction to the ignorant as Beelzebub is to give consolation to the pious, troubled spirit. Upon the other hand, the ruined walled cottage, with its old desks and plank benches upon and around which the sparkling intellects of thousands of our most useful and polished scholars have been developed, is almost wholly unappreciated, if not entirely repudiated by the wealthy of the land. Behold the coxcomb, "half powder and half lace," as he struts along our streets upon his high-heeled boots of self importance and puffs his Spanish cigar. Who but he! It would seem that discerning intelligence among the fair ones should and would brand such gaseous nonentities with ignominy, and fly from their presence as from the touch of the deadly viper. But what are the facts? The brainless, soulless, mannerless fool, especially if he is tickled with Colonel, Major, or Captain, drags after him a train of sparkling eyes and laughing faces, while the honest, brave and manly soldier with developed intellect and good moral character, who fought through all the hard battles of the late cruel war and proved himself to be superior to war and its concomitants, is about as little noticed as the freed-men who stand around our doors and beg for bread and employment. I must not here be understood as plucking a single laurel from the brow of our distinguished and worthy officers who acted so bravely in the late cruel contest. But there were those in both armies who were unworthy; and these are the ones to whom I refer.

There is in all probability as much deception in names as in dazzling appearances. "He's a graduate of A, or B, or C, College," is a very common remark that we hear, when a meed of praise is designed to be awarded. Yes; and so he may be. But does it follow because a man has gone through the curriculum of a college, he is therefore a polished scholar and a gentleman? By no means. Facts teach us that many who have graduated, as it is called, and pocketed their sheepskins, have nevertheless carried off from college more sheepskin upon their brainless craniums than they have carried in their pockets. It requires men minds to make scholars; and men of principle to make gentlemen. All the artificial stimulants and facilities of our schools and colleges cannot create mind.

Mind is a gift which God has created. Why then should a fool be lauded to the skies simply because his father was rich and passed him through college? Strange infatuation!

But here comes Miss Puella, with all her splendid accomplishments! Bless her little sweet soul, the young gentlemen want to eat her up. She's Col. B's daughter, just fresh from a female college, at which she graduated. Good morning, Miss Puella. "Bon Matin, Monsieur." What do you mean by your "bong mateen," Miss Puella? I meant to ask you how you are; that is, how's your health, and you reply to me in such an outlandish style! "Why, la! Mr. A., I spoke to you in French. Don't you know that we ladies who graduate in French colleges are compelled to learn the French as an accomplishment?" What sort of an accomplishment do you mean?—but never mind Miss P., I wish you this morning to do me a favor. This poor woman present has just sold my wife 7¾ pounds of butter at 5¾ cents per pound; but as neither my wife nor myself is a scholar, we can't tell exactly how much to pay her. Here, please take this slate and tell us, will you? "Why, la! Mr. A., we girls in the College never studied fractions. That department belongs to Male Institutions." Why, I thought Miss P., that graduates knew all things. Well! well! To-morrow Miss P., I am to leave for Austin, in Texas. Will you please tell me, as I am a poor illiterate man, what direction I must take, and through what [illegible] I must pass? "Bring me your [illegible]" [illegible] "Well, then, I can't tell anything about your route. Ladies who graduate seldom memorize matters of so little importance."

Well, Miss P., please darn my socks for me till Mrs. A. gets breakfast; that's a clever lady? "You insult me, Mr. A.; do you suppose that I would be guilty of such a vulgar thing?"—Well, Miss P., if you neither learned at college to calculate fractions, to understand Geography, or to darn stockings, in what did you graduate? "In Music, and other fine arts."

And yet this young lady is surrounded with a score of admirers, all of whom feel that to secure her hand would be to consummate their earthly heaven; while just across the street lives Miss Industria who is a splendid English scholar, can cook, knit, weave and sew, and yet no young man admires her, because she's not been to college—she's not accomplished! Strange infatuation! Which would make the better wife in these days? Young men, judge ye.

BURKE.

IMPORTANT ORDER.—Col. E. Whittlesey, Assistant Commissioner of freedmen for North Carolina, has just issued the following order, important to the white as well as black population:

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 10, 1865.

All officers and agents of this Bureau, and teachers of freedmen, will publish as widely as possible the following instructions:

I. In view of the fact that government aid now given to the destitute may soon be withdrawn, freedmen now living in camps, colonies and towns, are directed to find employment at once, by which they may support themselves.

II. Officers and agents of the Bureau will issue no more rations to any refugees or freedmen who refuse situations where they might earn their support. While the innocent and well disposed will be protected, vagrant idlers who try to live without any honest calling, will be promptly arrested and punished.

III. Paupers will as soon as practicable be turned over to the "Wardens of the Poor" for support, and officers and agents will co-operate with such wardens in providing for the infirm and helpless. Until ample provis on is made by the civil authorities, such persons will not be forcibly removed from the plantations where they were living at the close of the war.

IV. Orphans and children of parents who have no honest calling, or visible means of support, and other minors, with the consent of their parents, may be apprenticed to some good trade or occupation, in accordance with the laws of the State applying to white children. Every effort will be made to provide in this way good homes for all minors, now dependent upon the Government, that they may not become va-

THE LAUGH OF WOMAN.—A woman has a natural gift more than a sweet laugh. It is like the sound of flutes on the water. It leaps from her in a clear sparkling rill, and the heart that hears it feels as if bathed in the cool, exhilarating spring. Have you ever pursued an unseen fugitive through trees, led on by a fary laugh—now here, now there, now lost, now found? We have, and we are pursuing the wandering voice to this day. Sometimes it comes to us in the midst of care, or sorrow, or irksome business; and then we turn away and listen, and hear it ringing through the room like a silver bell, with power to scare away the evil spirits of the mind.

How much do we owe to that sweet laugh? It turns the prose to poetry; it flings showers of sunshine over the darkness in which we are traveling; it touches with light even our sleep, which is no more the image of death, but is consumed with dreams that are the shadows of immorality.—Prentice.

New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age in

HOOP SKIRTS.

[illegible] DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SPRING SKIRTS.

(or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc., etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST, BRADLEY & CARY, PROPRIETORS of the Invention, and SOLE MANUFACTURERS, 97 CHAMBERS, 79 & 81 READE STREETS New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

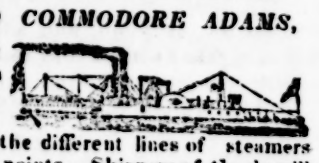
THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS

PIONEER AND COMMODORE ADAMS,



Will leave New Berne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock, A M, connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named points. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without change.

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families travelling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer WILLIAMS will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. The post offices on the various lines will be supplied, and it is desirable that postmasters be appointed at once. Proposals for any of these routes, and nominations for Postmasters, may be addressed to Gov Holden, to be forwarded by him to Washington. Persons who may propose to carry the mails must offer the necessary evidence that they will comply with their contracts; and nominations for Postmasters must be endorsed by loyal men, known to the Governor. Females may act as Postmasters, and there is no objection to appointing them.

The advertisement for the regular mail service in this State will appear soon.

We learn that the granting of this special temporary mail service is due to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. R. J. Powell, the State Agent in Washington, aided by W. S. Mason and W. J. Palmer, Esqr's. of this city. We believe that no such favor has been extended to any other State.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Washington Aug. 3, 1865.

SIR:—With a view to furnishing mail facilities. at the earliest practicable moment, to persons residing at and near County seats in the State of North Carolina, I have the honor to inform you that the Department on the receipt of reasonable bids for the transportation, will be prepared to issue orders authorizing temporary mail service on routes running from such County seats to the nearest points on rrilroads on which mails are conveyed.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. DENNISON,
Postmaster General.

Hon. W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, Raleigh.

N. B.—By temporary mail service is intended service to December 31st, next previous to which time all the routes in the State will be advertised for re-letting from Jan. 1st, 1866.

THE UNION BANNER

SALISBURY, N. C., NOVEMBER 29, 1865

J. J. STEWART. EDITOR

AGENTS WANTED.

We wish to establish agents in all the counties of this State as well as in all the principal towns and cities both North and South, for the purpose of procuring subscribers to the Daily and Weekly Banner—also, to obtain advertisements.

The Daily Banner has the largest circulation of any paper in Western N. C., and as an advertising medium, it is the best that could be desired.

We allow to agents acting for us 25 per cent. on all advertisements and subscriptions obtained according to our rates. They will deduct this amount and remit us the remainder.

BREAKERS AHEAD.

The present unsettled condition of the South, is a matter of the first concern to every good citizen.

That we are in a desperate strait, no one, who has closely observed passing events, can deny. Without a dollar in the State Treasury, with bank notes at fifty per cent discount, and State Treasury notes worthless, we have to rely, altogether, upon the National Currency, composed of U. S. Treasury notes and U. S. Bank notes, for a circulating medium. The negroes were practically emancipated about the time the crops were being pitched, and, most of them took a long, sweet holiday, while the corn was choking with weeds and grass. The area of land planted was comparatively small, owing to the absence of so large a proportion of the laboring classes in the army. To make matters worse, the towns are flooded with "new goods," whereby, the produce of the fields is absorbed into the northern cities.

There are too many idle mouths to fill. Hungry men, whether white or black, are dangerous men. We see, that in every place of any importance, "Emigrant Aid Companies," are advertised. This is all very well in its way, but it does not meet the whole difficulty. We need farmers of energy, capacity and enterprise to settle among us, but the laboring class must still be the negro.—The negro must be employed, or he becomes an element of mischief. Sound policy demands this. Give the freedman a fair trial. It will not do to treat him as a slave, for he feels and knows that his condition has been changed. On the other hand, he neither does nor can expect to be treated otherwise than as a servant. Recollect, that he has never been taught the necessity for persistent, energetic labor; he has not yet experienced its beneficial effects, or felt the full bearings of wanton idleness. Let the freedman feel that your former professions of practical friendship were not all gammon, but that you really feel an interest in his welfare and are disposed to lend him a helping hand in his novel and unsought character. Be generous, kind and forbearing, and it will take this winter only to teach the freedman that hard, earnest and unceasing labor, alone, can save him from the work-house and the jail, and that uniform good conduct on his part, will certainly insure for him the good will, encouragement, and approbation of all true men. Bear in mind, that he did not seek his freedom, that it was forced upon him, and that he could not have prevented it, had he wished. Place yourselves, as it were, in his situation, and answer to your consciences, whether you would have refused the boon of freedom, when offered. They are, as a class, ignorant almost as the untutored savage. This being the case, as one of the necessary evils of slavery, we should bear with them if they don't come up at once to all the requirements demanded in thrifty countries, from the laboring class.

The Freedman can only be reached through his interest; then make it his interest to work hard and honestly and faithfully for his employer, and make some allowances for his short-comings, until he can have time, after he has worn out his holiday, to see the line of his duty and interest.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Legislature convened at Raleigh, Monday. It has much to do in the way of hard work and much to leave undone in the way of Buncombe speech-making. We hope that Union record making will be tabooed, and that, for once at least, our State Legislature may perform its labors without discord, crimination and recrimination, and that the necessary debating may be conducted in a courteous and dignified manner. We shall keep our readers thoroughly posted as to its proceedings.

HOW SOUTH CAROLINA ADOPTED THE AMENDMENT.—The adoption of the constitutional amendment by the Legislature of South Carolina, was announced last week. The following are the preamble and resolutions on the subject as finally passed:

Whereas the Congress of the United by joint resolution, approved on the first day of February, A. D., 1865, proposed an amendment to the Constitution of the United States for the ratification of the Legislatures of the several States, which amendment is in the following words, to wit:

"Article 13, section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

"Section 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

"Approved February 2, 1865."

Resolved, Therefore, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, that the aforesaid proposed amendment of the Constitution of the United States be and the same is hereby accepted, adopted and ratified by this State.

Resolved, That a certified copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution be forwarded by his Excellency, the Provisional Governor, to the President of the United States, and also to the Secretary of State of the United States.

Resolved, That any attempt by Congress towards legislating upon the political status of former slaves or their civil relations, would be contrary to the Constitution of the United States as it now is, or as it would be altered by the proposed amendment, in conflict with the policy of the President, declared in the amnesty proclamation, and with the restoration of that harmony upon which depends the vital interests of the American Union.

O Double T.—The Woods of Lancashire, England, are a distinguished family for character, wealth and talent. The eldest son, John Wood, was for many years a Member of Parliament for Preston. A laughable circumstance once took place upon a trial in Lancashire, when the head of the family, Mr. Wood, senior, was examined as a witness. Upon giving his name (Ottiwell Wood) the Judge addressing him, said: "Pray, Mr. Wood, how do you spell your name?" The old gentleman replied:

"O double T
I double U
Double U

upon which the astonished lawyer laid down his pen, saying it was the most extraordinary name he had ever met with in his life; and after two or three attempts, declared that he was unable to record it. The court was convulsed with laughter.

GENERAL NEWS.

Raleigh, Nov. 26.—The Legislature meets tomorrow. A large number of members have arrived.

Gov. Holden is still confined to his bed from sickness. Dr. Powell, the State Agent at Washington has arrived with dispatches to Gov. Holden, which have not yet been made public.

Messrs. Pool, Reade, Holden, Dick, Settle and others, are spoken of in connection with the Senatorship. It is thought that the Constitutional amendment will be ratified by the Legislature. Prominent gentlemen here, who have been in Washington, are not very hopeful as to the future of the State and reconstruction.

New Orleans, Nov. 26.—Thomas J. Carver, the special bonded agent of the Treasury Department for the Chocktaw country, Alabama, tried at Mobile by a military commission on the charge of fraud in revenue transactions, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $9,000, and be confined at one year's hard labor at Nashville.

New York, Nov. 26.—The Tallahassee correspondent of the Times announces that the Florida Convention adjourned sine die on the 7th inst.

New York, Nov. 26.—The emeute at Marianna previously reported, caused considerable apprehension, but Gen. Foster has sent a company of the Seventh regiment to quell the disturbance.

New Orleans, Nov. 26.—The test oath has been argued before the District Court here for two days. Judge Durrell has intimated that he considered the law unconstitutional.

The steamship Cuba sailed from Boston Wednesday, for Liverpool, carrying the Tunisian Embassy.

The Tammany party of New York, has nominated John T. Hoffman for Mayor, and Richard O'Gorman for City Commissioner.

It is thought in Washington that Schuyler Colfax will be re elected Speaker without serious opposition.

The Republican majority in Minnesota is 1,500. Negro suffrage is defeated by over two thousand.

There was a grand ball of the Fenian Brotherhood in Charleston, S. C., on Tuesday evening last.

Gen. Grant and Maj. Gen. Augur, arrived in Washington from New York Wednesday.

Gen. Humphrey Marshall, who is in Washington looking for pardon, was not recognized by his old friends, he has fallen away so much.

[illegible] in New Orleans on the 14th from New York. He intends to resume his professional career in that city.

Officers of the War Department detective bureau deny that the force is to be abolished, as they have too much important work on hand.

The Fenians held a very large meeting at New Orleans, November 11. Colonel Cowden made a speech, denouncing the Irish Catholic clergy.

Several volunteers for the Mexican Republican army have been secured in Maine recently. They are promised $1200 bounty on reaching Boston.

The Canadian Finance Minister, in a recent speech, said that if Canada were annexed to the U. States, her share of our national debt would be three hundred millions.

Hon. H. J. Raymond is laying a line of pipe for the Speakership, and Greeley is tearing it up behind him, while Thurlow Weed is looking about for a New York Collector.

The Republicans held a mass meeting at the Orleans Theatre in New Orleans, on the 13th instant. The audience was large, two-thirds being composed of negroes.

Gov. Dillingham, of Vermont, has appointed the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Hon. Luke P. Poland, of St, Johnsbury, to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate, occasioned by the death of Senator Collamer.

Ex-Governor Kirkwood, Fitz Henry Warren and Congressman Hubbard are candidates for the vacant United States Senatorship in Iowa.

The United States Circuit Court is in session at Indianapolis. The case of General Hovey, for false imprisonment against certain citizens of Indiana, is up before it.

Hon. Caleb Cushing, whom some of the papers have sent across the ocean, is now at home.

It is said that the President has decided to sustain Gen. Fisk's action in the case of John Overton, of Tennessee, recently pardoned, and has telegraphed Gov. Brownlow to retain the pardon, as having been granted through mistake.

John Mitchell has gone to Paris to reside as a newspaper correspondent.

A fresh rumor says Gen. McClellan will not return home this season, but will spend the winter in Dresden.

The London Times has its own little theory about the Jamaica insurrection. It says of the natives—"In fact, if they have revolted, it can only be that they are two well off, and have time to indulge in dreams of republican independence."

By the death of Lord Palmerston the rectorship of Glasgow University is vacant. John Stuart Mill and Lord Derby are both talked of for the succession.

A special from Washington to the Boston Herald says authentic advices have been received there from Tobasco, Mexico, showing that an agent of Maximilian had recently left for France to request the Emperor Napoleon to send one hundred million dollars and forty thousand men to Mexico, Maximilian representing that he could not hold the country without such assistance from France.

It is stated that the taxes in Philadelphia for 1866 cannot be less than $3,50 for every one hundred dollars of the present valuation of real estate in that city.

The copperheads are beginning to show their fangs and to lash their tails in view of President Johnson's recent acts. He will prove the greatest snake-killer on record within three months.

The late Preston King was an inmate of the Insane Asylum at Hartford, for three months, in 1838.

The Government has ceased purchasing cattle for our armies at the north.

The Republican majority in New York is estimated by the Tribune at 30,000.

A merchant who started in business in N. York a few years ago, with a capital of $160,000. was admitted to the almshouse last week as a pauper.

The Boston Courier of Thursday, says that bleached cotton cloth, yard wide, was retailing Wednesday at some of the stores at 25 cents per yard.

It appears that Preston King, on the morning before he drowned himself, purchased twenty-five pounds of shot, and declining to have it sent home, had it equally divided and put in two bags which he hung about his neck by a cord and concealed by his overcoat. This plainly indicated what his settled purpose was.

John Minor Botts is in Alexandria, the guest of Lewis McKenzie.

NEW YORK DAY-BOOK
For 1866.

THE DAY-BOOK proposes to stand in the future, as in the past, upon the great doctrine that this is a WHITE MAN'S GOVERMENT on the basis of a FEDERAL UNION, and it desires to to be distinctly counted out of that class of journals which propose public clamor. It aspires to no higher honor than to be the [illegible] AGRICULTURAL CLASSES of the country against the public plunderers of all parties, who now, through banks, tariffs, taxes and free negroism, are striving to crush them. THE DAY BOOK, or its substitute, The Caucasian, for four long and bloody years kept the flag of State Rights and Constitutional Liberty flying, at a great pecuniary sacrifice, in New York, at a time, too when it had no other journal to keep it company. It has not therefore, been printed merely to make money, but has chosen rather to be right and with the People, than in the favor of cliques and rich railroad corporations and be wrong with the few. It might have been better off pecuniarily but it would have been sadly bankrupt in principle had it taken any other course. It does not now mean to run a competition with Shoddy Democratic or Abolition papers, supported by political funds robbed from the people, and it warns the masses that there are many so-called Democratic papers engaged in the conspiracy to mortgage the bones and sinews of the farming and industrial classes to bond holders and capitalists, and surrender the old Union and the Constitution to the Mongrelists. It, therefore, calls upon all true men to stand by it for another year's fight with the Abolitionists, monopolists and public plunderers. THE DAY-BOOK is now generally recognized as the Leading Democratic Weekly of the Country, and has the Largest Circulation of any Published, Being the only New York paper of its class made up as a Family and Agricultural Journal. Expressly for Country, Circulation—With full reports of all the New York Markets

THE SALISBURY GAZETTE.

We welcome our city contemporary to our exchange list. Dr Cole, the editor, is a gentleman of cultivation, taste, and talent, and, we doubt not, will make the Gazette a most readable and entertaining paper. While competing with us for public favor, we earnestly trust that nothing may occur to mar the pleasant relations, social and editorial, existing between us. The Gazette presents a handsome appearance—is printed on good paper; and the numbers before us give promise of excellence.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

Our sprightly and very readable contemporary, the Progress, comes to us much enlarged in size and improved in typographical appearance.

If energy and labor can command success, Mr. Pennington has certainly entitled himself to it.

George W. Swepson, Esq., has obtained a charter for the establisnment of a National Bank at Salisbury, N. C.

We find the above in the Charlotte, Democrat. It does not appear however as editorial, and we are consequently, somewhat disposed to doubt the truth of the statement. If it is true that George W. Swepson, Esq., has obtained a charter for the establishment of a National Bank at this place, he has placed our citizens under lasting obligations to him. Mr. Swepson was the gentleman to carry this enterprise through: he is a gentleman of indefatigable energy, and rarely fails to accomplish whatever he undertakes.

We are glad to know that the prospect of having a Bank at Salisbury is so favorable.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric, with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines at prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in thi s enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in thegrave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe, in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

THE FARMER,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE, THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC ARTS, AND TO HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "THE FARMER," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptation, and command, in return, a remunerating patronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a Journal of the highest order of its kind. It is to nothing short of this high standard of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain it, will be an object of unremitting effort and unsparing liberality of expenditure. It seeks recognition as a worthy organ of these cardinal branches of national industry, of which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery, without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re-organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly as we may, await the slow progress of tentative effort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and generalization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidance and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehible of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behal of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

National Thanksgiving Day.

Proclamation by President Johnson.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity and harmany with a great enlargement of civil liberty: And Whereas our Heavenly Father has also during the present year graciously averted from us the calamities of foreign war, pestilence and famine, while our granaries are full of the fruits of an abundant season: And Whereas righteousness exalteth a nation, while sin is a reproach to any people:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to the people thereof that they do set apart and observe the first Thursday of December next as a day of National Thanks—given to the Creator of the Universe for these deliverences and blessings. And I do further recommend, that on the occasion the whole people make confession of our national sins against His infinite goodness, and with one heart and one mind implore the Divine guidance in the ways of national virtue and holiness.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six-
[L.S.] ty five, and of the Independence of the U. States of America the nineteenth.

FOR SALE.

I OFFER for sale a small Tract of Land situated on the N. C R. R, 2½ miles South of Salisbury. This Tract contains about 300 acres, more or less, 60 of which has been recently clared and is fresh, and new, and exceedingly fertile—a part of the 60 acres is high meadow land, and constitutes about half of the whole arable land now cleared. The meadow may be used for cereal or grass purposes, and is equally valuable for both. The ballance of the land is well timbered with virgin growth and convenient to a good market. There is also a "Gold Mine" of tested value on the same Tract, to which I propose to attach 30 acres or more of wooded land, which I propose to sell separately. I shall remain in Salisbury for two weeks, where I shall be happy to treat with any person wishing to purchase, after which time I shall intrust the sale of the above to the care of Col. B. Craize my accounted agent. The purchaser can have the benefit of supplying himself with 60 bb's of corn and all of the farming implements &c. necesary to conduct the farm.

NEW BERN, NORTH CAROLINA, Nov. 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE this day formed a Co-Partnership under the name and style of

WHITFORD, DILL & CO.,

For the transaction of a Shiping and GENEARL COMMISSION BUSINESS

in this Town, West Side Craven Street, on Old County Wharf.

To the sale of COTTON, NAVAL SAORES, TOBACCO, LUMBER, STAVES, SHINGLES, CORN, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of

Real Estate and State and other Stocks,

we will give personal attention.

☞We are Agents for MURRAY'S NORTH CAROLINA SEMI-WEEKLY LINE OF STEAMSHIPS, between NEWBERN and NEW YORK and for Sailing Vessels for BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, and other Ports in the United States, and for different Ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to those, there is a Weekly line of OCEAN STEAMSHIP on the same route, and a Tri-Weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeak Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

☞ WE WILL MAKE LIBERAL ADVANCES ON CONSIGNMENTS,

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.

LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

New Volume begins January, 1865.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZIME is as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:

London Quarterly,	Revue de Deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Popular Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review.	Chambers's Journal,
Dublin University Magazine	Edinburgh Review,
Art Journal,	London National Review.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN, AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important historical events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

TERMS: $5 per Year; Single Numbers, 50 cents. Five Copies, $20.

The Trade, Clergymen, Teachers, and Clubs supplied on favorable terms. Address,

W. H. BIDWELL,

The Watchman.

THE subscriber proposes to commence in the city of New York, at an early date, the publication of a weekly Journal, to take the highest practicable position on its line of Literature. Each number will contain eight large pages, with six columns to each page, printed on excellent paper in a superior style of photography, and so folded that it may be bound.

It will discuss all the current topics of Religion, Sociology, Science, Art, Politics, Commerce, Finance and Agriculture, liberally, carefully, thoroughly, and from a broad platform far above all partizanship. While the entire control of the work will be in the hands of the Editor, he hopes to have a circulation which will enable him to secure in its several departments the best aid which America and Europe can afford.

Faithful to his own Denomination, he trusts that he is so well known in all the Churches for liberality, that any publication of his may unhesitatingly be sent into the families of any Christian community. It may be the mission of this Journal to make all Christians see one another in a lovelier light. The subscriber has an earnest desire, and will make a hearty effort, to produce such a publication that where a family can take only one paper, this will more nearly supply all its wants than any other. A Home Gazette, a Repertory of all the best current Literature, a Summary of all important Intelligence in every department of Human Efforts, a Journal of Progress, an Advocate of Truth in all things, a Friend, a Guide, a Blessing—this is what "The Watchman" is intended to become.

The Editor has never been a partisan, and expects the discussion of politics in his journal to have to do mainly with its higher aspects and questions. The only desirable and permanent Union of States or of churches is a union upon the basis of an affectionate reception of a fundamental, political, or moral and religious truths with a hearty hatred of all certain error, and a generous absence of all fanaticism and strife in regard to what is not essential to political common weal or spiritual salvation. Into this happy unity the "Watchman" will labor to bring all within the reach of its influence.

This journal will afford a common meeting ground for Southern men of all views and thus keep our people in one portion of the South informed of the sentiments and views of those in other parts. It will present to other sections of the U. States a clear view of the animus of our people; It will thus secure the South justice and support without promoting sectionalism.

Many reasons unnecessary to state have led many influential persons to the belief that the interests of the South and of the whole country will be greatly promoted by issuing the publication from New York.

The price is put at $2 for the first six months, or $1 for the first three months. No subscription received for less than three, or more than six months. These terms allow one to subscribe for several copies for a short time, for general distribution. The first person who responded to a circular issued just before this prospectus, subscribed for 20 copies to distribute North and South. Write plainly the name, the post office, and number of copies and the length of time, and address.
